Item	What the Rider must demonstrate	C	NYC	Examiner Notes
General	Must be a financial member of a Pony Club
	Must have a basic control of horse or pony and be able to ride confidently at both walk and trot
	As sitting trot is the basis of many musical rides, the rider must be able maintain a balanced seat (without relying on the reins) for reasonable periods of time
	Must be able to recognize whether music is either a 2 beat (for trot) or 4 beat (for walk) rhythm and get mount to move into those paces reasonably quickly
	3 beat rhythm and canter optional (This will depend on age and ability of rider)
	Must have participated in at least one musical team ride at an official club presentation / public function
	Or have ridden in a number of musical rides at club rallies eg: where a member has practiced as a member of a team over a number of rallies but then not in the final team that participates in a musical ride at a public function
	Or ridden a Dressage Test to Music, gaining at least 50% of possible marks
Safety	Rider must be aware of safety considerations if riding in close proximity to other riders if in a team situation
